

Goldberg, Robert Kennedy Get Approval

TWO CIELO VISTA school students, missing since 12:15 yesterday afternoon, were rescued from the Mt. San Jacinto foothills about 8:30 last night by members of the Mounted Police. The boys, Allen Hopkins, left, and Tom Schoenhoff, right, both 10 years old, munch on sandwiches after being brought down from high on the mountain in back of the water tank in Tahquitz Canyon. Pictured with them are members of the Mounted Police, left to right, Hobby Runkles, Elmo Purnell, Gary Sanders and Boo Hoff. The two boys were in "good condition" after their rescue. (P. S. JOBLESS TOTAL UP IN DECEMBER

WASHINGTON — Unemployment shot up to 4,540,000 last month, the highest December jobless level in 20 years, the government reported today.

From November to December, the number of persons out of work and looking for jobs jumped by 509,000, which was three times more than the normal.

THE LABOR Department also disclosed in its monthly report on the job situation that in the last week of December about three million persons were collecting unemployment insurance, the greatest number ever for a Christmas week.

The big December rise lifted the national jobless rate to 6.8 per cent compared to 6.3 per cent in November. This meant that 68 of every 1,000 men, women and teen-agers in the labor force were looking for jobs last month.

THE DECEMBER jobless figure made it virtually certain that when President-elect John F. Kennedy takes office Jan. 20, there will be about 5.5 million Americans unemployed.

Weed Burning Project Moves Into Orchard

INDIO — An out-of-control weed burning project here flared into an adjacent date grove and grapefruit orchard at approximately 3 p.m. Thursday, destroying 46 trees and a tractor caught in the flames, city fire chief Charles Adams reported today.

Ramon Soto, owner of the 82-341 Highway 111 weeded lot being burned over and the date trees, was burning nearly a city block with a permit when flames outsped his control disk. Adams said. Soto called firemen at 3 p.m. when the fire flared toward his date trees.

Thirty firemen responded with three engines, a tanker, and a squad unit, backed by an engine from the state Division of Forestry. The widespread flames burned six of Soto's date trees, and 40 grapefruit trees awaiting harvest in an adjacent lot. Soto's tractor was severely damaged in the flames.

TRANSLATOR GETS $125, NEEDS $7,235

Translator Station received $125 in contributions yesterday, leaving $7,235 to be raised by the Sunday deadline or the television service will be shut down, president Frank Bennett reported.

Directors of the non-profit corporation have set Jan. 15 as the deadline for raising the $15,000 needed to operate the service this year.

THE TOTAL number of job holders dropped by 1,173,000 in December, a greater than seasonal decline.

The report showed that the number of jobs declined in December in all 21 manufacturing industry groups tabulated by the Labor Department.

No Rain, High Temps Predicted

LOS ANGELES — No precipitation and temperatures averaging 5-10 degrees above normal was the five-day forecast issued today for Southern California by the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Two Destroyers Collide Today

CHARLESTON, S. C. — Two destroyers engaged in maneuvers off the North Carolina coast collided early today, the Navy announced. No injuries were reported.

FIREMAN HOWARD GARDENER returns to the ground with Larry Deason after extinguishing a fire in a telephone pole yesterday afternoon. The fire started about midway up the pole (arrow) after the "clamshell" rig cut through under ground lines and caused a short on the pole. CLASSES RESUMED AT HIGH SCHOOL AFTER BOMB SCARE

BY PARENTS, STUDENTS

School Operetta End Protested

The question of a High School operetta this school year flared before the Palm Springs Unified School District board last night as three unscheduled speakers made or attempted statements on behalf of the shelved musical, to applause of the first board audience to fill the High School music room in more than a year.

Board president Dr. Bernard Poliak gavelled the audience to silence after explaining repeatedly the process for obtaining a place on the board agenda. The issue was exhausted when board member Berton Lamb offered to move for a 20 minute recess.

THE BOARD HAD scheduled a special study session next Thursday evening, and issued invitations to student leaders to discuss the operetta. Invitations will also go to High School officials.

The issue followed a presentation to the board of the district's musical education program. Mrs. William Morris gained applause from the audience of students and parents when she praised the contributions of the operettas, and asked they be returned to the High School program.

DR. POLIAK OBSERVED the matter was not on the agenda, and subsequently reported the matter had been studied by the board. Member Everett Ball said the board had received "dozens" of calls for and against the operetta during board consideration.

Finance Group To Hear Knight

Municipal Finance Officers of Southern California will hold a luncheon meeting here at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, with former governor Goodwin Knight as featured speaker.

Weather

Desert area forecast: Mostly clear today through Saturday. Not much change in temperatures. Highs today 60 - 70, upper valleys, 70 - 80 lower valleys. High yesterday was 77, low 38.

Supt. Dwight Twist told the audience that the operetta consideration had been reviewed for "clarification" of policy in a study session to which High School administrators had been invited.

THE MEETING, Mrs. Morris observed, was the night of the High School open house. The board waited until 10 p.m. for someone, and the open house ended at 9:30 p.m., Dr. Twist said. A High School spokesman had reported previously that securing the buildings had taken approximately an hour after the tour of parents.

Joe Leonard, Palm Springs contractor recently named to a citizens study committee for district vehicular specifications, began a statement urging board hearing for the convenience of those who had appeared. Student body president David Simon gained recognition during Leonard's statement to tell the board the people had appeared through "a misunderstanding."

SIMON ASSUMED responsibility for the appearances, explaining the students had requested a place on the agenda through channels but the request had not been processed through the High School office.

Mrs. Alex Hammond made the closing statement Thursday evening, declaring "all we want is an answer."

New Highway Marker Work Started Today

New highway markers, expected to reduce traffic hazards, are being erected today at the Twenty-nine Palms - Highway 99 intersection. Notification of the start of the work was received by telephone by Dudley Steels from Fred Marshall, District Traffic Engineer, Division 8 of the California Division of Highways.

The signs will be large and strategically located, according to Steele, who stated that one alone will be 17 feet long.

In addition to the signs at the intersection, signs are being placed one quarter mile from the intersection on Highway 99.

The junction of the highways has been a source of many accidents and fatalities in recent years.

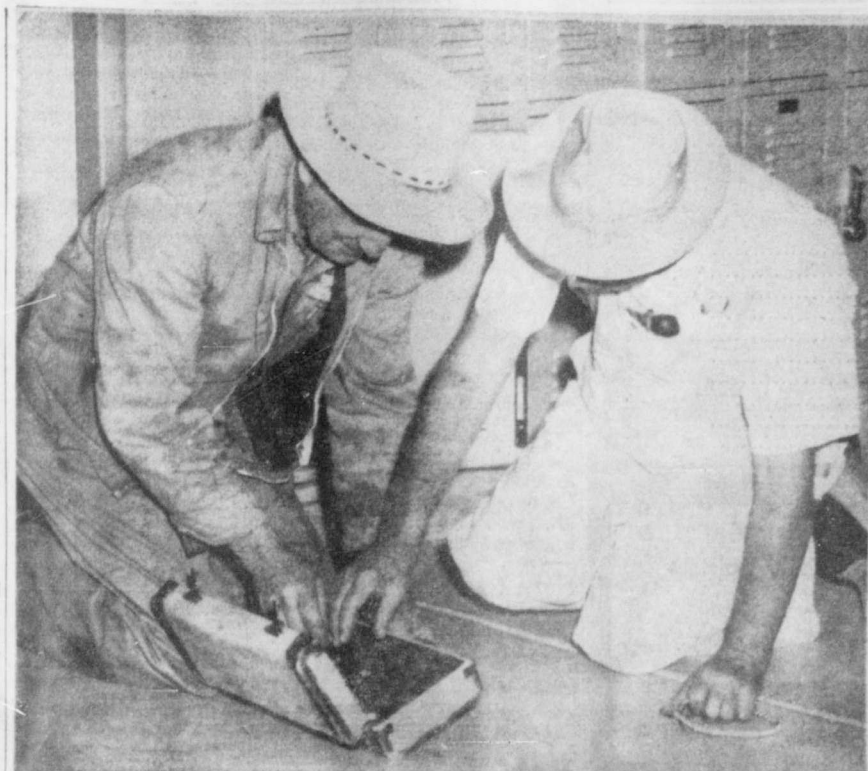

Steele had worked with other interested individuals and groups with the Division of Highways toward marking the intersection more adequately as a safety factor.

BLOOD BANK VISIT DUE HERE MONDAY

Monthly visit of the Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank is scheduled Monday at Desert Hospital, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Hospital administrator Robert Henwood urged Desert area residents to "start the new year right by establishing their own private blood banks for use by their family or friends in case of emergencies."

The Hospital Auxiliary will be in charge of registration of donors.

Sound Approach To the Stock Market Urged

"A Sound Approach to the Stock Market" was urged to the Palm Springs Lions Club yesterday noon by William M. Cooper, local stock expert.

Cooper, resident manager of Hornblower and Weeks, New York Stock Exchange firm, stressed the misleading implications of the "averages" and the necessity of forgetting old concepts of broad-based and bear market trends.

ROLLING ADJUSTMENTS and increasing selectivity have made study of individual values and group action more significant and meaningful to the investor, he said.

DICK WHITTINGHILL, Los Angeles radio station KMPC disc jockey, takes his job as High Sheriff for the 21st Annual Palm Springs Rodeo to heart and has been busy nailing up posters for the two-day event, scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 28 and 29, at the Polo Grounds. Widely-known as one of the Southland's most popular deejays, Whittinghill is sponsoring a contest on his radio show that will result in a couple attending the Rodeo and staying at The Desert Inn as his personal guests.

GOLDBERG, ROBERT KENNEDY OKEHED

WASHINGTON — The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved without objection the nomination of Robert F. Kennedy, 35, to be attorney general in his brother's cabinet.

At the same time Arthur J. Goldberg was unanimously and swiftly approved for secretary of labor by the Senate Labor Committee. He was the first President-elect John F. Kennedy's cabinet choices to win recommendation that he be confirmed by the Senate.

THE ACTION ON Kennedy, unanimous by members present, came after GOP committee members raised some questions about the legal experience of the president-elect's brother.

The approval took only a few minutes at a closed door session which followed a two-hour open hearing.

Democrats on the Senate Judiciary Committee defended his selection.

ANOTHER CABINET nominee, Abraham A. Ribicoff, who has been named secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, won the strong endorsement of Chairman Harry F. Byrd of the Senate Finance Committee.

Youth Injured Running Into Car

An 8-year-old boy, Scott Stevens, 4345 Camino Parcela, suffered only minor injuries after he ran into a car driven by Bonnie Marie Santa Cruz, 28, 987 Calle Santa Cruz police said.

Riding on a bicycle, young Stevens said he did not see the car because he was waving to some other children.

The driver of the car said she saw the boy and had stopped when he collided with it.

He was taken home by the driver of the car.

Officials 'Clear' Buildings

Palm Springs High School students ended a forced three hour "vacation" at 11:30 a.m., today, after three score of school district maintenance men, Palm Springs police and firemen checked out telephone reports of a bomb being planted on the campus.

The action was undertaken following two calls about a bomb.

DAN R. ANGELL, assistant principal at the school, received a call last night from a "juvenile voice" that said he planned to "destroy the school."

Again this morning, about 8:30 a call was received at the police department, and the caller said: "I've wrecked the school, and have planted a bomb there."

JUVENILE OFFICER, Robert Davis notified the Fire Department and Fire Marshal Warren Heath and his assistant, Capt. Jim Harris, joined the detective in heading the systematic search of the school rooms and grounds.

All students and instructors were evacuated into the 1,100 seat auditorium after it was carefully checked by investigators, and were held there pending the outcome of the search for the explosive.

ONE OF THE more than 20 maintenance men found a jam jar which was filled with liquid, possibly glycerin, and turned it over to the police to be checked. The bottle was found in one of the chemical labs but there was no way to tell at the offset if the liquid had been mixed with nitric acid.

Dr. Dwight Twist, superintendent of schools, on the scene to help where necessary, said during the search that it "is probably only a scare, but we've got to be sure — it's better to be safe than sorry."

DET. DAVIS SAID that he does have a suspect in the phone calls, and that the boy is a student at the school. Heavy concentration of the search was conducted in the music rooms, where officials went through hundreds of musical instrument cases, cabinets and lockers, one of the most likely places to hide a home-made bomb.

Davis said he too believed that the whole thing was a hoax, "but we certainly can't take a chance with 1,000 students."

The students returned to classes after the entire school was thoroughly checked.

UTES IN SEATTLE

Gordon Prentice Succumbs Here

Gordon Prentice, prominent Seattle businessman and winter resident of Palm Springs, died in Desert Hospital yesterday afternoon. He was 75.

A native of Wisconsin, Prentice was president of the Sunset Electric Company in Seattle.

HE WAS A member of the Committee of 25 here as well as a member of Thunderbird Country Club. His Seattle activities included memberships in the exclusive Rainier Club, the Washington Athletic Club and Broadmoor Country Club.

Prentice is survived by his wife, Vera; a son, Gordon A.; a daughter, Mrs. John A. Blithen, and by five grandchildren.

FUNERAL SERVICE will be held at the Church of the Epiphany in Seattle at 11 a.m., Monday, with interment to follow in Washelli Cemetery. The family has asked that in lieu of flowers contributions be made to the Seattle Foundation.

Wiefels and Son Mortuary of Palm Springs is in charge of local arrangements.

Berkey Asks Airport Unit Be 'Relieved'

Failure to Reply To Request Given As Reason for Bid

Supervisor George Berkey charged this week that the county airport commission has failed to make an appropriate reply to his request that they consider his recommendation that the airports staff be placed under Administrative Officer Robert Andersen and his commission be relieved of its present authority and retained in an advisory capacity.

"The airport commission has not brought out any facts in reply that tend to change my opinion," said Berkey. "This is something that should be resolved at an early date."

SUPERVISOR WILLIAM Jones suggested that action be held over for a week. Supervisors Norman Davis and Fred McCall concurred. The clerk was instructed to place the airport proposal on the Jan. 16 agenda of the board.

The airport commission's only reply to Berkey's suggestions was in the form of a letter from the commission's chairman, Eugene Best of Riverside, stating that "if administration of county airports is turned over to other departments, we see little necessity for the continuance of a commission and would recommend its abolishment."

SINCE THE resignation of C. H. Jones as airport director, his assistant, C. J. McKillop, Jr. has been acting director. His promotion to the position of director was urged by the commission, but because of Berkey's proposal to do away with the position and put Andersen at the helm, action on an appointment has been held up. In the meantime it has been disclosed that McKillop cannot meet qualification requirement for the job, though it is conceded that the job specifications could be rewritten to fit the applicant.

Safety Council, Junior Women In Safety Drive

January has been selected as Pedestrian Safety Month by the Palm Springs Safety Council, and the Junior Women's Club has undertaken the sponsorship for the council.

The Junior Women have issued the following safety rules for pedestrians:

1. Always cross the street at corners, never jaywalk. Be sure to look in both directions before crossing the street.
2. Never step into the street from behind parked cars.
3. Wait a moment before stepping off the curb, give fast moving cars a chance to stop.
4. When getting off the bus, be especially alert before crossing the street or highway.
5. When walking along the road at night be sure to wear something white so that you can be seen easily. Also walk on the left-hand side of the road facing approaching traffic and remember to carry a flashlight.

'And You've Got to Quit Tackling Players!'

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: When I was a young girl, I had to cut across a cow pasture to get to school. A couple of cows chased me once, making those terrible mooing noises, and I have been terrified of cows ever since.

I've been married a short time, and have been having horrible nightmares about those cows. Then I discovered that my husband's snoring brought back the memories of those pursuing cows. We have a very small apartment so I can't go into another bedroom to sleep. How does a wife sleep with a husband who snores?

SNOORER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Go to a drug store and ask for "bee's wax ear plugs." They really work! There are several brands on the market but, curiously enough, most pharmacy clerks have trouble finding them. You have to be persistent!

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the letter from the woman who has been getting anonymous phone calls telling her that her husband was stepping out on her. I was tickled pink when you told her to pay no attention to it. Only last week I received such a phone call from a woman who refused to tell me who she was. She said she thought I should know that my husband was seeing another woman. It just so happens I am not married. Sincerely yours, much my gas and electric bill is. I tried saying "I don't remember," but the questioning continues.

I have to associate with her so I don't want trouble, although I feel like saying, "That's none of your business."

TOO POLITE

DEAR TOO: A person who would ask you what you paid for your shoes is starting at the bottom and working her way up to some dillies. With your sweetest smile and warmest tone reply, "I'd rather not say." Then change the subject.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "Talks TURKEY": He who talks too much must eat a lot of crow.

"Who pays for what?" Send 50 cents to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for Abby's pamphlet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding."

For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Abby answers ALL mail.

Aid AFS by Attending Movie

American Field Service—the student exchange program—has proven its value here and elsewhere. Tomorrow night at the High School auditorium local residents will have a chance to aid the program by attending the showing of the French film, "The Beauty and the Beast."

The students themselves are sponsoring the movie to raise funds to bring another foreign exchange student here next year.

The program is valuable in bringing an exchange of ideas between students, and in learning about other countries through living with the people. Its function as a peace factor is invaluable.

An example of this is a letter recently received by Mrs. Winfred Miner, foster parent of Wolf Dieter-Boenecke of Oldenberg, Germany, who was an AFS exchange student at Palm Springs High School last year. Excerpts follow:

"Last Wednesday four of our returnees including me gave a speech about the United States and our experiences to about 150 people. They were surprisingly friendly, and I really enjoyed giving this talk and discussing American problems with them.

"The other day another returnee and I proposed to the student council to have the high school president elected by the whole student body through a real election with campaign and propaganda.

"The proposal was accepted unanimously and the entire election was a big success. Everybody, for the first time in our school, talked about the problems and finally we aroused every student's interest in this wonderful elective system."

Wolf, who by the way also sent holiday greetings to the people of Palm Springs through The Desert Sun, was elected chairman of the AFS Chapter in Oldenberg, a community of about 150,000 people, and which had seven exchange students from there last year and more this year.

It's a worthwhile project. Support it by attending the AFS sponsored movie at 8 p.m., Saturday.

All Is Vanity

"Ah! Vanitas Vanitatum! which of us is happy in this world? Which of us has his desire? or, having it, is satisfied? Come, children, let us shut up the box and the puppets, for our play is played out."

VANITY FAIR by Thackeray WASHINGTON, D. C. — As you pass the White House these mornings, you look, and your first impression is — the place has disappeared!

The impression, of course, is deceitful, but it is also symbolic. The outdoor bleachers and reviewing stands along Pennsylvania Avenue have obscured the Executive Mansion. The man who lives there is blanked out by the man who will live there at the end of the month.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER is still around, still keeps a schedule of sorts, still is nominally the most powerful individual ruler on earth — not even Khrushchev is, by law, the commander-in-chief of his country's armed forces, and the sole proprietor of the nuclear push-button.

Occasionally, as a crisis appears in Laos or the Congo, Mr. Eisenhower sees an official or two from the State Department or Pentagon. But it is pro forma. The present Administration is too close to dissolution to make any policy or perform any deeds of note.

THERE IS LITTLE use for Mr. President to consult with Congressional leaders. He apparently feels no need to communicate with the nation, or the press. He has vaguely promised "one more" meeting with newsmen, and he usually keeps his promises, but it's difficult to recall the last press conference, what was said, what was decided or accomplished.

How often has the vanity of human ambition been more clearly and sadly exposed than in this period called "interregnum," which falls between the reigns of our Presidents? I know it is the custom nowadays to declaim that the burdensome responsibilities have turned the presidency from a glittering honor into a stern duty.

BUT ANYBODY WHO recalls the scramble for the post among Democrats and Republicans, anyone who can envision the last campaign in terms of greenbacks, of vats of aviation gas, of the spaghetti of electronic cables, of straining of vocal chords and muscle, of popping of mid-dead blood vessels, will not easily believe that the presidency has no allure for ambitious men.

Only human nature is immutable. Presidents have ridden to White House residence on horseback, in carriages, in changing styles of automobiles. Campaigning has passed from laissez-faire to front porch speeches, to air-borne forays and televised debates.

BUT ADMIRAL CARY Grayson, President Wilson's friend and physician, once told the late Frank Kent that no President ever leaves office without a little pain in the stomach for which there is no cure. No man ever bade farewell to greatness without regret.

To be sure, Mr. Eisenhower is the most modest and self-effacing of men, and is one of the few who genuinely permitted the office to seek him out. But for 20 years, as soldier and statesman, Dwight Eisenhower has been in positions of command, has been the associate of the world's most famous and notorious men, has enjoyed the deference, adulation, flattery and viewpoint that will suddenly be gone in reality — and today are already gone in all but name.

Soon, from First Citizen and Commander-in-Chief, he descends to the plainness of ex-President sans power, sans pomp sans everything.

BUT THE CYCLE moves. The top hats are in order for the Kennedy family and official circle. Medallions are struck for the sharp young profile. By law, he will serve four years in the excruciating pillory, and much will be written and said of the rigors and toils he will endure — but already the Kennedy Organization is looking ahead to 1964.

Some say that in 1968 the same machinery will attempt to move the diadem from brother to brother. Nor are the Republicans idle. Nixon, Rockefeller, Goldwater — they can't wait for the next election.

Amid exploding atoms, faster-than-sound travel and trips to the moon, the pageant and conflict of human ambition go along as always. And, as always, there is an ending which today is emblemized by the White House, where one man lives behind the gaunt scaffolding that will soon be the cheering section of his successor.

To keep this terse.

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Today being Friday, the 13th, when the hoodoo does a double take, Mr. Emeritus who usually conducts this column, keeps his fingers crossed all day and therefore cannot wham a type-writer keyboard. So Mrs. G takes over. Any opinions expressed herein are not necessarily those of Mr. G, more often known as Phat.)

Here I go again, Friday, the 13th, when what is laughingly known as the head of the household, disdains to touch a type-writer.

I LOOKED up the word superstition in Mr. Webster's book of words. And just wait until I see that again.

The definition was "an irrational abject attitude of mind toward the supernatural, proceeding from ignorance."

Oh, boy, that is going to be good!

I NEVER COULD understand the superstition complex. Like walking around the block because a black cat ran across the sidewalk. Once he severed a close friendship with a man he said was a good newspaperman because he heard him whistling in the newsroom which he says is an unpardonable sin.

Phat has three hats, one good one, one medium and one delapidated object which, naturally, is his favorite. But I got rid of that.

WE WENT away on a weekend trip and just as we were leaving, I put this number on the bed. When he came back and found there was a hat on the bed — apparently an evil omen — he screamed and tossed it into the garbage receptacle.

Now, if I could only find out some hex about old shoes, I'd solve another problem.

I'VE BEEN TOLD that about every twelve lines I should write in capital letters so that's why I did it just here. I've also been told that with the new more legible type The Sun is using, to cut this thing four lines shorter than the last time I wrote it.

Any more of these instructions and I'm going to say: "Let Dave (Junior) Klotzbuecher write this!"

BUT, ON THE MORE cheerful side — I am glad the football season is at an end. Perhaps I'll be able to view my own television shows again. One weekend we had five games, two college games Saturday, a pro game Sunday and two college bowl games again on Monday.

I qualified without reservation as a football widow.

Now it's the fights on Saturday night which he watches and mutters: "Those bums!"

Well, I guess I've hit bottom and according to the calendar he received but keeps hidden from our churchy friends, I won't have to do this again until October 13, also a Friday.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Arm's Length

The pretty young English girl in the trim blue TWA uniform led me through the airport maze to a door marked "Port Medical Officer."

"I'll just wait a bit for you here and then take you back to check in your luggage," she said.

"I can find my own way back, ma'am."

"I'll wait," she said with a reassuring smile. Sometimes they come out a bit faint."

THIS IS THE second time I have come to London's busy airport and looked high and low for my yellow card with the vaccination certificate. The U.S. will not let you back in without it.

I pulled my baggage off the scales and pulled out the shirts.

I SEARCHED MY ski clothes including the long underwear. By heavens, it was embarrassing with those pretty ground hostesses watching every move.

I looked through the passport case. The ticket envelope, I leafed through a paperback copy of "The Fastest Gun in Texas."

Nothing.

"I fear you must be vaccinated," said the ground hostess.

"If you are not vaccinated, TWA will be fined."

"TWA HAS PLENTY of money," I said sullenly. "And I have only one arm. It has been punctured until I feel I should have a Purple Heart."

"Come, come," she said. "It won't hurt a bit. I shouldn't be surprised you'd like it, the Medical Officer's such a jolly chap."

THE JOLLY CHAP gave me a gloomy look. Without a jolly word, he motioned me into the next room.

It was sort of recovery room — a narrow hospital bed and a number of cabinets probably filled with instruments of medieval torture.

HE PULLED THE seal off an ampule of smallpox serum. He lit a small alcohol lamp. He opened a cabinet and took out a scalpel and began running it through the flame.

"Sit down and roll up your sleeve, please."

(That was not necessary. I sat down the minute I saw the scalpel, I was that giddy.)

"BAD BUSINESS to lose the health card," said the Medical Officer. "Have to do a proper job all over again."

"What is the knife for?"

"Better than the needle for letting in the serum," he said. "Some nick the arm with the needle or the glass end of the ampule. But nothing like the knife for getting it in good, I always say."

"THAT IS WHAT you always say?"

"Now," said the Medical Officer, "he did seem more jolly or, at least, eager. 'Now—steady on.' He picked up the scalpel and I looked away."

"YOU ARE A BIT overweight," said the TWA ground hostess. (I had just lost ten pounds in the vaccination room. But they don't count THAT.)

She tagged the baggage and tagged me for about ten quid in overweight.

We went through immigration — "follow the green lights" — into the little free port room where you can unload your last English money for duty-free goods.

IN LONDON AIRPORT they bus you out to your plane, the distances are so great.

SEVEN HOURS later in New York, the American Health Officer hardly glanced at my new certificate.

"Good trip?" he said.

"Fine," I said. "Except for my arm which —"

HE WAVED ME on. "Probably a touch of neuralgia," he said. "We all get it in this weather. A hot compress will fix it up."

He wouldn't even let me tell him about the scalpel.

And neither will anyone else.

COUNT FERNANDEZ BOYS

MORRISTOWN, N. J. IM —

The county jailers are using their fingers to count off the Fernandez boys — one, two, three. . . Counting noses doesn't work, as they all look alike.

Two of the 20-year-old triplets are waiting trial on breaking and entering charges. Their third was jailed Tuesday for parole violation.

DRIVE-INS LEND SUPPORT

CARBONDALE, Ill. IM —

Local businessmen got added support in their drive to have Southern Illinois University relax its ban against letting students drive cars.

Latest to side with the group was the operator of a local drive-in movie.

CAUGHT IN DRAFT

SANTA ANA, Calif. IM —

Shortly after the mailman made his delivery Tuesday at the home of Don I. Crabtree, an emergency call brought a police car, the Fire Department rescue squad and a doctor.

The doctor examined Crabtree, then pronounced his diagnosis:

"Extreme nervousness brought on by a draft notice."

SPORTSMANSHIP

CARBONDALE, Ill. IM —

The newly organized Southern Illinois University cricket team scheduled its first match with the St. Louis Cricket Club for April.

Then the St. Louis club lent the college team bats, togs, balls and wickets so it could play the game.

WASHING A NUISANCE

VIENNA IM — Alfred Hintermeier, 21, was sentenced Wednesday to one year in jail for deserting the Austrian army.

He said he went AWOL because he didn't want to wash every morning.

He'll finish his army hitch when he gets out of jail.

UNHAPPY BUSINESSMAN

LONDON IM — A London businessman dictated the following letter to his wife via a new British typists pool which operates over the telephone: "Now that I have no secretary, I hope you are satisfied."

JANUARY 13, 1951

Wild rumors raced through the city late yesterday afternoon after local police stopped three persons thought to be suspects in a Solana Beach bank robbery. Following the brief action at Indian Avenue and the Plaza, rumors flew that William Cook, suspected killer of eight sought throughout the Southland, had been captured or even killed here. Police questioned the trio, occupants of a car similar to one sought in connection with the Solana Beach robbery, and released them. Later officers said that inquisitive onlookers hampered police action and endangered their own lives when they pressed closely to the scene of the stop. All the police were armed and prepared to use their weapons.

Much looked forward to by youngsters of the town, the Palm Springs Desert Museum's special series of children's activities will be inaugurated Saturday morning with a short walk on the Tahquitz Canyon Fan. This initial walk will be under the supervision of the museum's director, Lloyd Mason Smith, in cooperation with Miss Katherine Finchy of the elementary school. There is no charge for attendance.

Spending a quiet weekend in the gardens of Hotel Del Tahquitz were Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Lady Hardwicke.

Mrs. Anna Wood, aged homesteader of Cabazon, who was recently tarred and feathered by unknown thugs, presumed to be hirelings of cattlemen, was well known in Palm Springs. She was formerly employed by Miss Lois Kellogg and Mrs. Freeman of Palm Springs. The attack on the aged lady has aroused the ire of all Southern California, and has created quite a sensation in the metropolitan newspapers. Her attackers have not been apprehended.

Congress Wasn't Sick

WASHINGTON — IM — For awhile, I thought that Congress was sick or something.

My fears were aroused by the Congressional Record for Jan. 3, which indicated that members of the House of Representatives introduced only 383 bills on first day of the new session.

This averages out to less than one bill per congressman, which isn't even enough for a good bonfire. Ordinarily, the opening day inflow will average about three bills per congressman.

THE RECORD FOR Jan. 3 came out on Wednesday and, needless to say, I didn't sleep much that night. I lay awake for hours trying to figure out the reason for such a puny total of new bills.

In the hallucinations that insomnia can produce, I even began to fancy that the republic might be in jeopardy. But fortunately, my worries were groundless, or at least premature.

ON THURSDAY, the next edition of the record revealed that House members actually greeted the New Year with 1,827 bills, 82 joint resolutions, 34 concurrent resolutions and 64 plain resolutions.

This was clear evidence that our lawmakers still are vigilant and relentless about looking after our interests, so we can all feel reassured. Some of them aren't even waiting for President-elect John F. Kennedy to point the way to the new frontier.

IN LOOKING OVER the list of proposed legislation, I saw many measures of vital consequence to the national welfare. Here are some of the more vivid eye-catchers:

—A bill to provide an official flag for congressmen to fly on their car bumpers or yachts. Ever since the dawn of the republic, congressmen have been forced to travel around without a flag they could call their own. It's nice to know that someone is trying to do something about this privation.

—A BILL TO "Create a presumption" that heart attacks and hypertension suffered by government workers are "incurred in line of duty." This would entitle them to disability compensation even if they get ulcers on their own time.

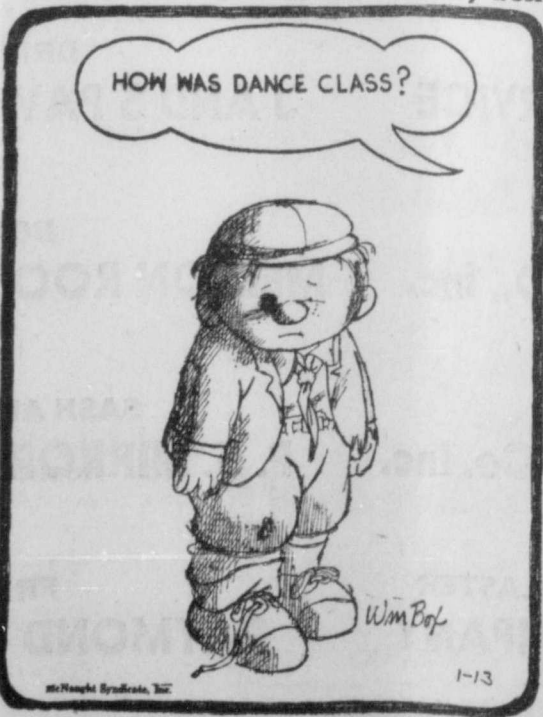

—A bill to prohibit the registration of trademarks containing the words "White House." This I presume, would keep motels from pretending to be the executive mansion or from putting up signs claiming that "John F. Kennedy slept here."

—A BILL TO PROVIDE for the coining of $50 million worth of $5 and $10 gold pieces. Rep. Carroll D. Kearnes (R - Pa.), who introduced it, said it would be better to put part of our bullion in circulation than to "risk the gold slipping out of this country." For all I know, he may be right.

—A bill to require that dogs be kept under leash in public places in the District of Columbia. I don't know what motivated this measure, but I will try to find out. It ought to make an interesting story.

Howard Confirmed 'Desert Rat' Now

By GEORGE LAINE

It didn't take Eddy Howard long to become a confirmed desert dweller once Ray Ryan had the nation's No. 1 singing bandleader inked for a long-term stand at the El Mirador Hotel.

Eddy and his pretty wife, Jane, up and sold their Winnetka, Ill., home and forthwith bought themselves a beautiful home in El Dorado Palms.

"I CAN JUST SEE all my Chicago friends shivering right now," said Eddy, during a relaxed afternoon get together in what used to be the Kiva Room at the El Mirador.

"Me, I couldn't be happier." Sport-shirted and golf-capped, Howard pulled at a long cigar and jerked his thumb toward the newly redecorated Silver Palm Room.

"It's starting to catch on," he said. "I wanted to help Ray make the El Mirador the dance capital of Palm Springs. But from the way it's been going so far, we're going to wind up having the dance capital of California instead."

HOWARD ADMITTED that Palm Springs living has created something of a weight problem for him.

"I'm 175 now but I can go up to 200 if I don't watch myself," he patted his stomach as he made the observation. "Right now I've got to lose 10 or buy a new tux." Howard, an executive for Mercury Records for several years, won his reputation as a singer. But he started as a guitarist and trombonist back in the day of Ben Bernie, George Olsen and, later on, with Dick Jurgens' early bands.

BORN IN WOODLAND, a suburb to the north of San Francisco, Howard started for a medical career like the rest of his family. "But I had to be the black sheep," he sighed. "I started strumming a guitar in college and I've been in the music business ever since."

He mused for a moment. "The closest I've been able to come to medicine is some stock in American Hospital Supply," he said.

He was just another $125 per week singer at Chicago's Aragon Ballroom and an agent named Reggie Levin spotted him. Levin made a proposal and Howard said yes, little thinking anything would come of it. Within a week Levin was back with a $5,000 per week contract for a week at the Chicago Theater and Eddy was off and running.

HOWARD'S LINE-UP of hit recordings — a million copies or better — include "To Each His Own," "Careless," "If I Knew Then," "A Million Dreams Ago" and "My Last Goodbye" and he features medleys of these songs in his El Mirador stand.

In addition to the medleys, the Howard band also presents segments of Dixieland, fox trots, specialties and others.

"We'll play Latin or rock and roll if the people want to dance to it," Howard said.

The subject of rock and roll is a favorite with Howard, since he views it both as a performing musician and as a recording executive.

"NOW I'M ENTERING my fourth decade in music and I think we're going to see a return of good music in this next 10 years," Howard opines.

"We had the instrumentals in the 30s, Goodman and Shaw and the Dorseys.

"We had the vocalists in the 40s, the Eberle brothers, Sinatra, Haymes, Como and some others. I guess I'm included in there, too."

"The 50s brought us rock and roll and although none of us lived it, some of us played it. From a standpoint of the recording executive, I've got to be a realist. If it's popular, if it's a trend, you join it. Mercury would have looked pretty silly if it had been the only recording company not making rock and roll."

"The 60s look good to me for a lot of reasons, and the biggest one is that rock and roll appears to be on the decline. Not because it's not being demanded but because something better is replacing it."

HOWARD BELIEVES that rock and roll music has lost considerable ground among older teenagers with the age span on it now generally confined to youngsters from 10 to 14 years.

"College kids simply will have nothing to do with it and older teens are becoming more and more sophisticated in their tastes."

"We might see the 60s as the ballad era after the decade is over. Anything could kick it that way. Presley's new recording of 'A Little Lonesome Tonight' might be the thing. Or it could be Bobby Darin or Tommy Sands doing something on a ballad line."

HOWARD BELIEVES that a change is imminent, anyway, and Mercury is apparently geared to move on such a change when and if it occurs.

"We feel that the revival of standards and ballads has a good chance to be the major switch in music in the period just ahead," he said.

Whatever that change is, the chances are excellent that Eddy and his 15-piece orchestra will be watching it—and helping it along—from the bandstand of the El Mirador's Silver Palm Room.

"Oh," said Eddy, grinding out the cigar in an ashtray, "don't say we're trying to make El Mirador the dance capital of Palm Springs."

He winked.

"That's already an accomplished fact."

FLORAL EXHIBITS AT ORANGE SHOW

SAN BERNARDINO — Plans for the "most beautiful flower show in the west" at the National Orange Show, April 20 through 30, were revealed this week by chairman William G. Zulch.

Harry Macres of Santa Ana, recognized as the dean of the nation's floral designers, will again manage and direct the show.

IN LINE WITH the National Orange Show's "new look," the floriculture show will be held in the huge 110 x 225 foot building which formerly housed the orange packing plant.

The entire building will be transformed into a "Flower and Garden Wonderland" in keeping with the "Citrus Wonderland" theme of the Orange Show. An elaborately landscaped sunken garden will be a highlight of the colorful floral exhibits.

MAJOR CHANGES in the premium list, Zulch and Macres said, are in the educational plant and flower collection displays open to garden clubs and societies. This year the displays themselves will be highlighted instead of the garden theme previously required.

GARDENING IN THE DESERT

Desert Rats Look for Rain

Anent the weather, we who have spent many years in our desert, those who annually make the desert their wintertime home, and those who spend their weekends here can have nothing but praise of the weather conditions.

We who have our own gardens are also happy but quietly hope that we have an occasional mild shower of rain between now and the end of June. Most desert gardeners insist that mild rainfalls are really helpful for all our plants and that piped-in water is necessary but not as helpful as rain.

IF YOUR LOT IS worried with weeds of all kinds and you want to dispose of them for good there is a combination of amino triazole (amitrol), which kills through leaf absorption, and simazine, which destroys by root absorption. The latter chemical kills all the seedlings in treated soil for six months or more. Amitrol destroys unwanted grasses and broad leaved weeds. We advise you to keep away from sodium arsenite unless you want to prevent all growth. In addition to this it has been known to cause death. However, the chemists who handle such mixtures now claim that all but a few permanent plants will turn out to be resistant. To feel safe discuss these weed killers with your nurseryman before making use of them.

BAREROOT STOCK is coming around. Actually you have quite a choice of trees and other plants: shade trees, roses, fruit trees, berry vines, etc. If you have the trees on hand don't lay them aside, you should have the different basins ready, so prune off broken or frayed roots and start planting.

Be sure your beds are wide enough and deep enough to allow plenty of room for unimpeded root growth. When you have completed the filling job don't expect top growth will appear immediately. At this time root systems are most important.

WHEN HANDLING bareroot roses have the prepared soil to hand, make a conical mound of soil and fill in the sides to keep the roots in place. When the soil is high enough firm it by hand around the root system, leaving no air pockets.

To the gentleman who asked us about the California Pepper Tree and its growth we are dubious about you growing them in your garden. The tree has been used in making a hedge by retaining a height of four feet calling on frequent pruning. If grown as a tree it is liable to grow to 30 or even forty feet and its roots spread almost as fast as Cottonwood and Tamarisk. These roots have been known to worm their way into sewage pipes and even under the floor concrete that soon becomes broken.

ALL IN ALL WE would advise copying the four foot hedge that the gentleman built, but don't let the spreading roots break down the walls of your swimming pool.

Another drawback about the California Pepper Tree is that it continually drops a lot of tiny berries so keep your new car away from under the pest. Some years ago the Orange Growers put up a kick about the appearance of the California Pepper Tree because of its effect on growing oranges. Result: — The California Pepper Tree gradually disappeared from that vicinity.

New Park Under Way

Project At Silver Spur On

To the accompaniment of the chugging bulldozer, ground was officially broken for the new club house and recreation area at the greatly enlarged Silver Spur Park. It also signaled the beginning of construction of 106 spaces designed to accommodate even the largest mobile homes. The ultimate development will provide spaces for 350 mobile homes.

The club house will be located on "Big Hill," a promontory 10 feet above the space level, thus giving an unimpeded view of the entire Coachella Valley to the east. The building will be modern ranch style with a covered veranda which will comfortably seat over 200 people.

THE INTERIOR will provide a large club room, a fireplace area, an elevated stage and TV and pool rooms. There will be adequate kitchen facilities for a large park.

Adjacent to the club house, there will be facilities for shuffleboard with eight of the latest type courts, croquet and horseshoe courts, a nine-hole putting green and a covered barbecue area which will seat 50 people. Fronting the club house there will be a large swimming pool.

Indio Realtor Building City Within a City

LOS ANGELES — To help make Phoenix, Ariz., one of the leading urban areas of the world, to fulfill a need and a demand evidenced in the past four years, plans to build and develop an ultra-modern city-within-a-city were disclosed by a California firm.

The spokesman for the firm in this region is Dick Davis, real estate broker in Indio.

The current exposure is a Convention City around a convention hall on a 320-acre site, strategically located immediately north of the city of Phoenix. The hall will be built primarily as a center for major sports, theatricals, and symphonies, with a view toward helping make the West more attractive and more profitable to New York groups that usually stop in San Francisco and Los Angeles only.

Owner Still Seeking Cat Lost in '59 Here

Time sometimes does not erase heartaches.

This applies to Mrs. Edgar Ordway, who is still hoping to locate her lost cat, Midgie, which disappeared from her home, then on Sycamore Circle.

Mrs. Ordway now resides at 405 Philippine Street in Taft. She has issued a new appeal to Palm Springs residents to contact her if they have any information concerning Midgie, which disappeared in the summer of 1959.

Trust funds of the state of Minnesota, raised primarily from royalties and income from iron ore, total $225 million, second among all states in the nation.

Cave and Jones Repeat in Senior Twosome Tourney

Fire 176 To Win By Six

Gail Cave, many times champion in senior golf tournaments, and Ray Jones, both of Thunderbird Country Club, successfully defended their title in the best ball twosome tournament of the Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf Association Thursday when they fired a 56 to give them a 54-hole total of 176.

Never far off the pace, Cave and Jones fashioned cards of 53-62-56 in the three days of play at O'Donnell, Tamarisk and Thunderbird.

IN SECOND SPOT were Amos Bomberger of Modesto and Al McCoy of La Jolla who carded a 58 Thursday, second best of the day, and wound up six strokes behind the leaders with a 182.

Tom Haley, O'Donnell, and Reg Seabrook, San Diego CC, who were tied for the lead after 36 holes, shot a 64 Thursday and finished third with a total of 184 for the 54 holes.

THURSDAY'S best ball foursome winners were Phil Hall of Lakeside, A. F. McClellan, San Diego, Carmie Krausnick, Las Vegas and O. D. Perry, Red Hill, with a 54.

McCoy won the individual daily low net prize with a card of 74-14-62.

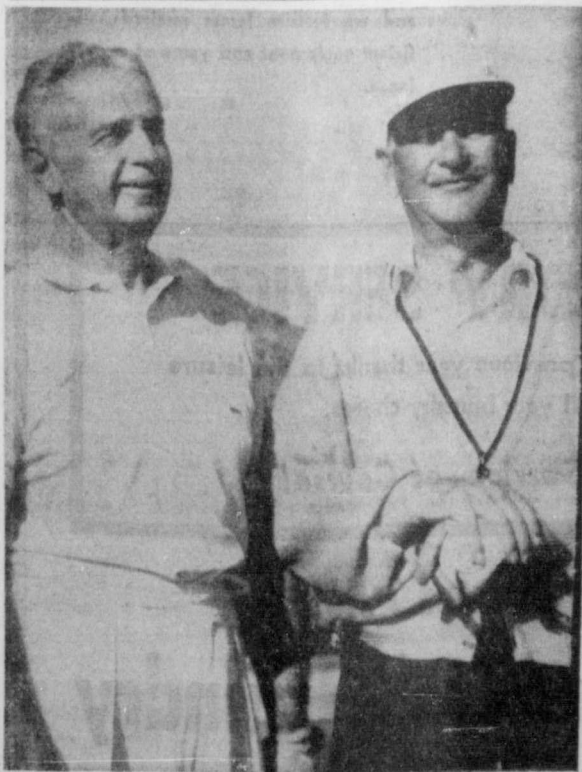

Scores of the leaders:

Maturity Stars Run Tomorrow In San Fernando

ARCADIA — Three young horses that may dominate the Santa Anita winter meeting — T.V. Lark, Tompon and Prove It — had the small field expected to go postward in Saturday's San Fernando Stakes.

The San Fernando, limited to 4-year-olds as a final test prior to the estimated $170,000 Maturity Jan. 28, Saturday's race may also be a preview of the top contenders for many of the rich added-money races at the meeting including the $145,000 Santa Anita Handicap.

GAIL CAVE, left, and Ray Jones, defending champions, repeated in this year's Desert Seniors January best ball twosome event, carding a 176 for the 54-hole tournament. Both are from Thunderbird. (Partridge Photo)

BRUNO DIGRANDI points to the recalcitrant No. 5 pin which wobbled from side to side then defied the laws of gravity and remained upright, spoiling his perfect 300 game this week. He had 11 straight strikes before this pin refused to fall. His final score was 299, just one away. (Photo by Tom Wassell)

Nation's Leading Bowlers Start Pin World Series

SAN BERNARDINO — Some 336 of the nation's premier bowlers today got down to the serious business of winning prize money in the 20th annual All-Star Tournament at the National Orange Show Exhibit Hall.

The "world series" of bowling is sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors Association of America (BPAA).

Defending champions Harry Smith of St. Louis and Sylvia Wene of Philadelphia were to be on hand today as regulation preliminary round action started in the 10-day event.

Smith and Miss Wene earned their titles last January in Omaha, Neb. The tournament is being held on the West Coast for the first time as part of the BPAA's campaign to take the championship event on a cross-country tour.

A record 42 states were represented in the affair, 240 men and 96 women, vying for the record $88,150 in prize money. The top man will take home $10,000 for his efforts and the blue winner on the distaff side of the scoreboard will rake in $5,000.

Morgan Upsets Favored Perkins

LOS ANGELES — Youngstown, Ohio's L. C. Morgan, 139, upset No. 2 lightweight contender Eddie Perkins 139, Chicago, Thursday night in the Olympic Auditorium's 10-round main event.

Perkins was an 8-5 favorite in the boxing match but lost in a unanimous decision. He was undefeated last year.

Laurye's Defeat Jay Cees 74-37, Mazzulas Win

Laurye's Steak Ranch basketballers ran their string to three straight Thursday night at the High School gymnasium when they defeated Jay Cees 74-37 and Mazzula Masonry climbed out of the City Basketball league basement by winning from the third place Bonnie Electric, 51 to 44 in the nightcap of a double-header.

Aikens of Laurye's scored 18 points to be high man for the winners and Oberle topped the losers with 17. Hertzke of the winners also had 17 and Walls, 16. Laurye's defeated only once in three years of the league — and that by default — ran up a 37-12 lead in the first half.

The nightcap was a thriller with Mazzula nosing out the Bonnie's 51-44. Jim Schilling of the winners was high for the game with 13 points and Lou Neeley had 12. Walton, with 12 was high for the losers.

The standings today:

	W	L	Pct
Laurye's	3	0	1000
Smoke Tree	2	0	1000
Lewis Juniors	1	1 1/2	500
Mazzula Vasonry	1	2	333

Unitas Starts for West, Dutchman For East, Sunday

LOS ANGELES — Coach Vince Lombardi today named quarterback Johnny Unitas and right halfback Lennie Moore of the Baltimore Colts among his starters for the West All-Star Pro Bowl team against the East Sunday at the Coliseum.

Lombardi, in naming his probable offensive lineup, held in reserve his two aces from the Green Bay Packers, quarterback Bart Starr and right halfback Paul Hornung, the National Football League's all-time scoring leader.

Lombardi was apparently set on the strategy of letting teammates Unitas and his favorite passing target, Moore, work together, at least for a while.

Named with Unitas and Moore in the backfield were Jon Arnett of the Los Angeles Rams at left half and Jim Taylor of the Packers at fullback.

Coach Buck Shaw of the East squad named his Philadelphia Eagle quarterback Norm Van Brocklin as a starter in a backfield with John Crow of the St. Louis Cardinals and Tommy McDonald of the Eagles at halfbacks and Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns at fullback.

Monti Leads At San Diego With 66 Card

Palmer Fires 69; Field in Event Is Closely Bunched

SAN DIEGO — It's Friday the 13th — and this may spell double trouble to Eric Monti, first round leader in the $20,000 San Diego Open golf tournament, and possibly bring a spot of luck to Arnold Palmer — leading money winner of 1960 and early bust of 1961.

Monti, 42, noted for his fast starts and slow finishes, fired a five-under par 66 Thursday to take the first round lead. Meanwhile, Palmer, who blew out of contention with a wild-fire 12 on the last hole of the first round of the Los Angeles Open, had a fine 69.

BUT MONTI can get into trouble without the "help" of Friday the 13th after any first round. And when night falls he is expected to be among the also rans here.

"But Friday the 13th won't mean anything to me," said Palmer. "I had enough bad luck on that last hole at Los Angeles to last me through the year."

Tied for second place, each with 67s, were Gary Player, of South Africa; Jerry Barber, of Los Angeles, and Marty Furgol, of Hill, Ill.

MOST OF THE OTHER big names of the golf world were in a good position. At 68 came Don January, Dallas, Tex.; Bob Goalby, Crystal River, Fla., winner of the recent Los Angeles Open; Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, La.; Bo Wininger, Odessa, Tex.; Frank Boynton, Orlando, Fla.; and Darrell Hickock, La Grange, Ill.

S.C. Bruins Host Double Headers In Sports Arena

LOS ANGELES — UCLA and the University of Southern California open a weekend schedule of basketball at the Sports Arena tonight with a double-header—the Trojans meeting Washington—and the Bruins battling Arizona in the opener.

UCLA meets California in the feature Saturday night and SC plays Washington in the opener. Coach Forrest Twogood's Trojans lead the Athletic Association of Western Universities after beating California twice last weekend. SC has a 2-0 record, Washington 1-1. UCLA 1-1, Stanford 1-0 and California 0-3.

TEE TIME IN WORLD'S WINTER GOLF CAPITAL

SMC Women Qualify in Tourney

The "Gates of the Desert" Golf Tourney is under way for 32 qualifying members of the Shadow Mountain Club Women's Golf Auxiliary, with play slated to continue weekly through Feb. 7.

Mrs. Helen Huntington, chairman of the Auxiliary, and tourney chief Mrs. Gladys Strong, announced that the membership only turf joust will be played in twosome matches at course handicap for the 18 hole route.

TOURNEY QUALIFYING rounds were fired by Tuesday, and the first round of play will be over the course by next Tuesday. Subsequent rounds must be fired by Jan. 24 and 30, and Feb. 7. Award of the trophies, led by the big silver "Gates of the Desert" cup, will be made during a regular meeting Feb. 8, Mrs. Huntington reported.

Low qualifying round was fired by Irene Bellamy, a Sandpiper Apartment resident, who carded 85 in the scratch qualification play.

PAIRINGS will be listed on the board, with play to be executed within the specified week. Failure to appear by one member of a twosome constitutes default, and elimination.

The Auxiliary has 47 playing members, Mrs. Huntington said.

O'Donnell Choose-Up

Mrs. James Montgomery, Mrs. Walter Funsinn, Mrs. Fred Nelson and Mrs. Wynne Hubbard teamed together Thursday to win the Ladies Choose-Up at O'Donnell Golf Club with a best ball 55.

Other scores were:
 56—Mrs. E. A. Young, Roy Marjall, B. P. Shearer, James Montgomery.
 58—Mrs. Fred Nicholson, William Reichel, B. P. Shearer, Miss Wynne Hubbard.

Indians, Yucaipa Clash Tonight in DVL Cage Game

One done in Desert Valley League basketball play, Palm Springs Indians go to Yucaipa tonight to meet the high-flying Thunderbirds of that community, currently one of the strongest teams in the league.

Yucaipa has an impressive 10-3 record so far this season, 1-0 in the DVL and 9-3 in practice games. The Indians are 0-1 in the DVL 7-4 in non-league games, a total of 7-5.

Coach Jim Workman will depend on the shooting of Tyrone Taylor and Mark Edwards in the hopes for an upset victory. The Indians were weakened when Gus Walton was declared ineligible last week. Both the Indian and Yucaipa B teams are 0-1 in the standing to date.

Game time at Yucaipa is 7 p.m. A loss tonight will just about end coach Workman's hopes for a SCL title and will boost Yucaipa to odds-on favorite in the race.

In other games tonight, Indio, the surprise of the loop, goes to Coachella Valley and Twentynine Palms meets a fired-up Banning

Road Races Here Go International For 18th Running

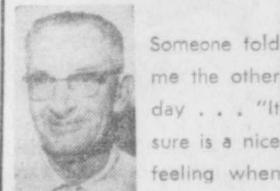

Two foreign exchange students who are attending Palm Springs High School under the auspices of the American Field Service, have been selected to represent their respective countries at the 18th annual Palm Springs Road Races January 21 and 22.

Miss Antoinette Van Riet, 17, of the Netherlands will be race queen and award the trophies to the winners at the Palm Springs Airport and Jean Louis Scoffie of Nice, France, will be the honorary race marshal.

Dave Harris, race chairman for the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring the event along with the Sports Car Club of America, said the selection was an appropriate one due to the international aspects of the races.

More than 200 entries including the top race drivers of the nation will compete in the two-day event.

PLAZA MOTORS

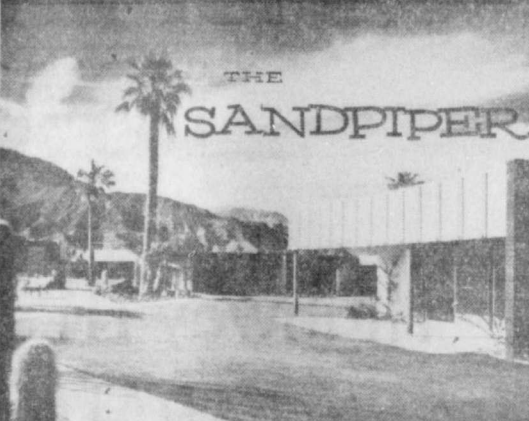

Someone told me the other day . . . "It sure is a nice feeling when I come to Palm Springs to know that Plaza Motors has been selling Cadillacs here for over 20 years, and that when I bring in my Cadillac for service, or trade on a new model, I am dealing with long time Cadillac experts." This is the kind of assurance that means everything to people who are used to the best.

No guessing or procrastinating. Plaza people don't have to guess or procrastinate when it comes to a CADILLAC. THEY KNOW CADILLACS. So . . . if you appreciate dealing with experts . . . you'll want to deal with PLAZA MOTORS. Why not call me today.

MRS. GILLIGAN DIES AFTER 2-YEAR ILLNESS

Word has been received here of the recent death of Mrs. Ida Hopf Gilligan, 93, Beaumont, pioneer resident of Los Angeles and Riverside counties and winter resident here for about 10 years at one time.

Mrs. Gilligan died at a San Bernardino hospital, where she had been for two years. Cremation was at Grove's Colonial Mortuary.

Survivors include two nieces, Mrs. Barbara Sarup of Palm

Spring and Miss Patricia Eaton of North Hollywood, and two grandnieces, Vera and Julie Sarup.

He Asked for It

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Deputy Sheriff Allan Sweatt was giving his 4-year-old son, Allan Jr., a telephone scolding on a minor rap. "I should punish you when I get home," Sweatt said, adding, "What do you say to that?" "Don't come home," was the reply.

Schwilcks Host Tardy Party

By RUTH STEINER

Sunday evening an impromptu party was enjoyed at the Silver Spur Ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Schwilck. It was unusual because it was a belated combination of a Christmas and New Year's celebration, with the guests all arriving in the New Year's tradition with hats, horns, balloons and noise makers.

Those partaking of this gala barbecue were Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Les Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Duffield, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Carling. After dinner all of the lights were turned off with the exception of soft candle lights while the group sang Christmas carols that are sung at the yearly benefit party for the Michael Burke foundation, featuring the voices of Christmas.

After spending the Christmas holidays with relatives in Toluca Lake, Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt returned to their Bursom Street home in time to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Thomas, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Greenhalgh from Sherman Oaks, who arrived to spend the New Year's weekend with them. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt entertained their houseguests on New Year's eve at Shadow Mountain Club. Other recent visitors at the Pratt home were Mr. and Mrs. George Kenter of Westwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Lyons returned to their San Juan Street home Monday evening after having spent the past several weeks in Stockton where they have a plumbing shop. Their son, James and his family reside there and the family enjoyed the holidays together.

Saturday overnight guests at the home of Mrs. Helen Furer and her mother, Mrs. Fausta Spiane, were Mrs. Harriet Camin and her daughter, Helen, who drove down from North Hollywood. Their small dachshund "Camie" accompanied them.

Seen at Hilma Lawrence's Firecliff Sans Souci Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Maruska of Redondo Beach who had stopped by to see their long time friends, Keith and Alta White who are entertaining there. Mr. Maruska is a missile engineer and spends much of his time in traveling. He recently returned from Cape Canaveral and they are vacationing a short time in the Desert area before he leaves for Rapid City, S. D. Others seen recently at this popular spot were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marston of Pasadena who spent several weeks at the lodge, Bing Crosby, Pete Petitto, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spear, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Dayton, Mrs. Jane Cowles, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bagdasarian hosting a large table of friends, L. Kenneth Say from Fresno, John Kovacevich of Bakersfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dahlberg, Mrs. Clinton Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. William Newell, Mrs. Jimmy Thomas, Mrs. Edna Boyer who is a resident of the Firecliff Colony and others.

Houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Bear are Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Bear who drove down from La Canada to spend a week with them. Hayden is a nephew of Mr. Bear.

A small family birthday dinner party was hosted by Miss Edith Eddy Ward and her mother, Bunny, Tuesday evening at Firecliff Sans Souci for their sister and daughter, Mrs. Ross Reharr of Van Nuys. Others present to celebrate this natal day were the recipient's husband, Ross, and her other sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goetjen who are here from Tracy, Calif., spending some time in their home. Baked Alaskan was served to the guests in lieu of the traditional birthday cake.

Arriving Wednesday from New York City, Mrs. Jan Howell will be a houseguest at the Ironwood Street home of Mr. and Mrs. William Beedle (parents of William Holden) for a few days. Mrs. Howell has a wholesale gift shop on Fifth Avenue. Thursday night the Beedles hosted a dinner party in honor of their guest, which included Mr. and Mrs. A. J. MacCorquodale of Deep Well and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nassour of Palm Springs.

A duo occasion was celebrated

RIM OF THE ROCKS, which will utilize the internationally famous double R of the former Romanoffs on the Rocks, has been chosen as the new name of this luxurious restaurant which is the latest acquisition of Milton F. Kreis. The noted restaurateur, who also owns Palm Springs' most beautiful and luxurious restaurant ... the elegant Romanoffs on the Rocks with its white-tie-and-tails atmosphere ... which has been slumbering on the rocks since last spring ... is stirring to life under the guiding hand of its new owner Milton F. Kreis of Palm Springs and Beverly Hills ... who already owns other important Palm Springs interests ... the smart MFK drug-store (which is really in the Palm Springs manner) ... the intimate Signature Room ... Jeffreys with its sidewalk cafe ... and the about-to-open Aloha Jhoe's also in Cameron Center ...

Formerly owned by Prince Mike Romanoff ... a favorite restaurateur of Hollywood personalities ... the restaurant is located on the first ruffle of Palm Springs outskirts on Highway 111 ... and under the new ownership will be known as Rim of the Rocks ... thus utilizing the famous double R crest ...

Perched on the rocks ... with a magnificent view of the desert and Palm Springs ... Rim of the Rocks is situated on four acres ... with a winding roadway which leads up to the big front doors ... The grounds are being newly landscaped to enhance the setting of the restaurant ... which is being completely renovated ... The new decor is under the direction of Lyle Wheeler, John DeCuir and Leonard Doss ... award winning art directors from the movie industry ... the same three men ... who designed Jeffreys, Aloha Jhoe's, Cantonesse ... and the other Kreis restaurants in Beverly Hills, San Francisco and Phoenix ...

Roy Bradley ... who has made the Signature Room such a popular meeting place ... will be maitre d' ... when it opens late in January or early next month ... He said today that the restaurant will open daily at 4:30 for the cocktail hour ... Dinner and cocktail music will be played in the diningroom ... and there will be dancing from 9:30 on ... Dinner will be in the manner of the Cock and Bull in Beverly Hills and Gallaghers in New York ... offering a complete and diversified menu in an attractive price range (this means easy on the pocketbook) ... striking a casual keynote of "come as you are" ... Maitre d' Roy will divide his time between the Signature Room and Rim of the Rocks ...

Target date of the end of January ... was announced by Maurice Gerson, general manager of Kreis operations ... at the same time that he announced January 1st as the recording date for change of ownership ...

The opening of this beautiful hill-top restaurant is something Palm Springs will look forward to with interest ...

Mary Hurrell is off to Salton Sea ... where she will be with her son John Newell and his family at the North Shore Motel ... This time she's taking her horse with her and will do some riding as well as seashore activities ... and she's planning to have some of her friends down as she did last winter ...

While she's away ... Mary's house on Vereda del Sur will be

Friday 13th Doesn't Affect New Billing

Management of the Hotel LaPaz noted the date of Friday 13th, but didn't let it deter them from their plans, so host Al Anthony presents impressionist Arthur Blake for an indefinite period, starting this evening.

On the same bill will be the Tom Russell Musical Combo and some surprise artists, as well as Al Anthony himself.

Tomorrow evening, from 8 to 8, Al Anthony will be hosting a cocktail party in the Chez Anthony Room for a number of celebrities, who will come in from Hollywood for the event.

Among those bidden are Kenny Miller, Holly Mitchell (he's the lead in "Heaven Can Wait" at the Cameo Playhouse in Hollywood), songwriter Shari Sheeley, Juli Redding, Connie Stevens and many others.

A few Palm Springers are being invited to join the party.

Dinner Honors Visiting Press Here for Three Day Visit as Guests of Spa

A group of visiting journalists of magazines and newspapers, brought to Palm Springs as guests of the Palm Springs Spa, were honored at a cocktail party and dinner held at Hotel Oasis Wednesday evening. The party was hosted by Warner Gilmore, executive director of the Spa, and Mrs. Gilmore.

The planned three-day flying trip to the desert, began with a champagne buffet in the California Lounge of the Los Angeles International Airport, where the guests, Betty Jean Schrick, society editor of the Portland Oregonian; Molly Leibell of Sports Illustrated; Eleanor Phillips, L. A. fashion editor for Vogue magazine; Philip Slater, west coast manager, Harper's Bazaar; Nancy Dinsmore, west coast fashion editor, Harper's Bazaar; Edgar Self, editor San Diego Magazine; Neil Morgan, San Diego Union top columnist; Charles McCabe, sports columnist, San Francisco Chronicle; Herbert Krauch, managing editor, L.A. Herald Express; Charles Champlin, bureau chief, Life Magazine (Time Inc.); Frank Mulcahy, L. A. Times, were entertained previous to their flight via Western Airlines to Palm Springs.

During their stay the journalists were guests of the Oasis Hotel, where that evening the Spa entertained them at cocktails and dinner. Around 150 desert personalities were invited to the affair honoring the visiting press.

Joel Stone of the Chamber of Commerce welcomed the crowd of diners, and introduced Warner Gilmore, who introduced the visiting press and such notables as Mrs. Austin McManus, who built the first Oasis Hotel; flying great-grandmother Zaddie Bunker; and noted philanthropist Elsinore Machris.

Thursday morning the group enjoyed a two and a half hour visit to the luxurious Spa where all of the famed services were made available to them. A trip through the heart of the country club area culminated in a luncheon at El Dorado Country Club hosted by Manager Bill Daugherty. Thursday evening, colorful Chi Chi played host to the group where they were met by Julian Stiff and Lou Mawby.

This morning another visit to the Spa preceded a final luncheon at the Oasis Hotel, following which the visitors enplaned via Western Airlines for their homes.

'Berry Good

Make fresh cranberry conserve now to serve the year round. Wash and pick over 1 pound of fresh cranberries. Cook in 1 cup of water until skins burst. Add 2 cups of diced peeled apples, 1 cup of diced fresh oranges, 1/2 cup of seedless raisins and 3 1/2 cups of sugar. Cook, stirring frequently, about 25 minutes, until mixture thickens. Stir in 1/2 cup of chopped nuts. Turn into six 6-ounce sterilized jelly glasses and cover at once with melted paraffin.

To take the bitter taste out of coffee, add a pinch of salt.

When making sandwiches for a crowd, allow two cups of filling for 12 slices of bread or two rounded tablespoons of filling for each slice of bread.

John Morley Scheduled on Escort Night Program

For their annual Escorts Night, which will be Monday, January 16, Palm Springs Woman's Club members and their escorts will have the privilege of again hearing John Morley, one of the world's most widely traveled commentators and syndicated columnists. He will speak on "The World I Saw," presenting a first hand account of the world behind the Iron Curtain.

Morley defied Communist arrest and imprisonment, even death, as he covered 4,600 unescorted miles inside Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia and East Germany, and was finally expelled from Hungary by Communist Secret Police. He saw both sides of the Israel and Arab crisis . . . he saw the plus and minus in Africa . . . and terror in Tibet. In his own words he says, "In the world I saw, the prospects of peace far exceed those of crisis, but the crisis will always be better advertised."

After the program, Club president, Mrs. George O. Wheeler will invite members and their escorts to enjoy a social hour around the tea table, where refreshments will be served.

Tea chairman Mrs. Charles D. Greason will be assisted by Meses. A. H. Coffin, Joseph Forkner, Bow Herbert, Clare Kinne, Howard Matthews, Gordon Nicholson, Francis Pruitt, Gerald K. Sanborn, John Vale and Charlotte B. Goodwin.

Clean hard - to - remove sediment from the bottoms of bottles or glass vases by filling the vessel half full of warm soapsuds. Then add a handful of carpet tacks. Shake vigorously. The sediment will loosen.

Snack Treat

From the oven and into the nut bowl, Brazil nut chips are a snack treat for holiday guests. To make these crisp tidbits, simmer whole shelled Brazil nuts 3 to 5 minutes. Thus softened, the nuts may be neatly cut in 1/2-inch thick lengthwise slices. Spread the nut slices in a shallow baking pan, dot with butter, and sprinkle with a little salt. Bake in a moderate oven for 15 minutes until the nuts are golden and their inner flavor is accented.

NEW YORK (U) — "Romanticism in Music," a 90-minute special featuring an all-star cast headed by Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic, will be presented on CBS-TV Sunday, Jan. 22.

ABC radio has paid "in excess of $350,000" for exclusive broadcast rights to the Floyd Patterson - Ingemar Johansson heavyweight championship fight scheduled for Monday, March 13 at Miami Beach. The fee is said to be the largest of its kind in broadcasting history.

PAUL WHITEMAN will conduct the "Bell Telephone Hour" orchestra in an anniversary performance of Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" on NBC-TV Friday, Feb. 3.

CBS-TV's "U. S. Steel Hour" for Wednesday, June 7, is scheduled as a pickup from Pittsburgh of Gene Autry's rodeo stars in action.

The noted English actress, Edith Evans, makes her American TV debut as co-star with Christopher Plummer and Janet Munro in "Time Remembered," the Jean Anouilh comedy which is being presented on NBC-TV's "Hallmark Hall of Fame" Tuesday, Feb. 7.

SAL MINEO WILL star as a notorious Sicilian "Robin Hood" bandit in "Cry Vengeance," an NBC-TV dramatic special, on Tuesday, Feb. 21.

Producer David Woiper has signed Gene Kelly as host - narrator for his independent two-hour, two-part documentary TV special, "Hollywood and the Movies," which will trace the film capital's history over the past 50 years.

Charles Laughton stars in CBS' "Swinging at the Summit" subs for NBC-TV's Dinah Shore Show on Sunday, Jan. 29. Louis Armstrong, Kay Starr, Tony Bennett, Harpo Marx and George Shearing are the stars.

JOHN GUNTHER, famed author-lecturer, will be the host-narrator in "The Red and the Black," ABC-TV's "Close-Up!" for Sunday, Jan. 22. The one-hour documentary explores the Soviet Union's challenge to the West in Africa.

Dennis "Chester" Weaver, "Matt Dillon's" sidekick, makes his directorial debut with the Saturday, Jan. 28 episode of "Gunsmoke" on CBS-TV... Carl Rein and gag writer Mel Brooks will do some material from their new comedy record album on "The Ed Sullivan Show" for Sunday, Feb. 12.

Holiday Inn Gains Variance for Sign

Holiday Inn, now under construction on Highway 111 at the south city limits, Wednesday received City Council approval for the installation of a 250-square foot sign (125 on each side) on an application for a sign variance.

However, earlier in the evening the council approved an amendment to the sign ordinance regarding hotels, allowing a maximum of 500 square feet for large hotels which had a big setback of the signs.

The Holiday Inn sign cannot be higher than the building.

Jewelry Theft Reported Here

A car clout, which netted thieves an estimated $50 in jewelry, was reported Wednesday morning by Susie Pagan of Desert Hot Springs.

Mrs. Pagan said that several items of jewelry, a black leather belt, and a bag disappeared from her car while it was parked in the parking lot at Germain's Liquor Store.

EX-MAYOR CHARLIE FARRELL helps himself to a piece of Ray Ryan's birthday cake while the current mayor, Frank Bogert, right, waits for his turn. Huge cake, symbolizing Ryan's oil business and his El Mirador Hotel ownership, highlighted a surprise birthday party tossed the oilman by his friends. The cake even heralds things to come. Note the word "Safari" at extreme right. It represents El Mirador's new Safari Room, scheduled to open Jan. 17. (Conrad Hug Photo)

COFC TO INSTALL OFFICERS JAN. 24

Over 700 members of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce have received invitations to its 20th annual Midwinter Dinner Dance, to be held in the Silver Palm Room of El Mirador Hotel on Tuesday, Jan. 24.

Festivities will get under way at 6 p. m. with cocktails, followed by dinner at 7 p. m., it was announced by Chamber manager Jimmy Cooper.

HIGHLIGHTING THE program for the evening will be the installation of newly elected officers and members of the board of directors of both the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants Association.

In previous years, these two organizations had separate installation functions.

NEWLY ELECTED Chamber officers to be installed are Joel Stone, president; Francis Crocker, first vice president; Edgar L. McCoubrey, former first vice president, who is the new second vice president; and William H. Smith, outgoing president, who will be treasurer for the current year.

Also to be installed will be new members of the Chamber's board of directors: Toby Curtis, Herb Samson, James Schlecht and Carl Schoons. Other directors of the new board are either incumbents re-elected, those who still have one more year to serve of their term, and those appointed members.

RETAIL MERCHANTS Association's newly elected officers to be installed are Joe Henderson, president; Leo Baker, vice president; Katie Nelson Day, secretary; and Earl Dodd, treasurer. The only new member of the Retail Merchants' board of directors to be installed is Paul Campbell.

Installation will commence promptly at 8 p. m. and be completed by 8:30 p. m. Chamber manager Jimmy Cooper, who will be master of ceremonies, said that "introductions will be brief, and everyone planning to attend will be happy to know that there will be no speeches, but rather, an evening of fun and good fellowship."

STARTING AT 8:30 p. m., there will be dancing to the music of Eddy Howard and his orchestra, plus entertainment provided by America's No. 1 singing band leader and his aggregation.

In addition to Chamber members and their guests, others planning to attend include city officials and invited members of the press.

According to Cooper, a record turnout of Chamber members is expected. Tickets should be purchased in advance at the Chamber of Commerce; and the cost of $6.50 per person includes gratuities and taxes.

Ten-Twenty Club Holds First '61 Meeting

By JEAN PATANE

The first meeting of the New Year for the Ten-Twenty Club was hosted last week by Mrs. Ernest LeClair at her home on Paradise Way. Canasta was the game of the evening with prizes won by Mmes. Kay Duxbury, Betty Dunne and Evelyn Williams. Others attending were Mmes. Gail Ziegler, Twila Hand, Betty Hall and Helen Bentley. Refreshments of egg nog, upside down ginger bread and coffee were served during the evening.

During last week Mrs. William Ellis of Glendale was a houseguest of Mrs. Wayne Sherwood at her home on "J" street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Steele, winter resident of Moon Manor for many years, arrived last week from their home in Olympia, Wash.

where he is well known as the "Oyster King." The Steeles plan on enjoying the desert until late in the season. Mr. and Mrs. Russell O. Barker plan on leaving the end of the week for their home in South Bend, Ind., after a desert holiday at Moon Manor.

While enjoying the holidays as houseguests as her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bodenheimer at their home in Vallejo, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd spent Christmas Day at Clear Lake with the family. They returned to the desert last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colglazier and sons, Mike and Pat, were weekend houseguests at the Santa Ana home of former Cathedral City residents Mr. and Mrs. Dale Habiger and family. Sunday Mike went on his first deep sea fishing trip with his father and Dale.

Mrs. Norman W. Karr and Mrs. Cy Hodgen, accompanied by Mrs. Tom Anderson of Rancho Mirage, represented the Cathedral City Girl Scout Leaders at the International Friendship Luncheon hosted by the Desert Sky Council of Girl Scouts held at the Playhouse last week. The menu consisted of dishes typical of all the countries participating in the Girl Scout Program.

Here for several months at the Sun Glow Motel are Mr. O. Cochran of Renton, Wash., Bill and Lucy Pontius from Olympia, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pool who arrived Tuesday from their home in Roseburg, Ore.

Susan Greneveld left Tuesday for Los Angeles to attend the fashion showings at the Ambassador and Biltmore Hotels.

For the New Year's weekend Mr. and Mrs. Ernest LeClair had as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Henry King, who make their home in Lakeside.

A family reunion was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lane during the New Year's weekend. Here as their houseguests for the occasion were her sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. John Petani and son, Albert, and Mrs. James Fare and son, Ronnie, from Monterey Park, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien and son, Dan, of El Monte, and Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Laballarto and children, Patricia and James, of San Gabriel. Joining the family were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Shea of Blue Skies Trailer Park, and their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cowan and his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Cowan of Sunair.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Butterworth with Mr. and Mrs. Don Mabbitts of India, returned to the desert Sunday night after spending four days in Phoenix, Ariz., hunting for rock specimens and visiting with Dr. Ellamay Soloth.

Weekend guests at the Desert Villa were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Nelson of Solvang, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes from San Diego.

Mrs. Mabel Taylor returned last Wednesday night from a six day visit at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simpson, and her 83-year-old mother, Mrs. Minnie Fiene in Salinas.

Holiday houseguests at the home of Mrs. Lena Knowlton and her grandson Daniel Knowlton were her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bubner, Jr. and children, Linda and Dennis, of Oxnard, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bubner Sr. of Six Lakes, Mich., who are visiting with their son and family. Here from Banning were Mrs. Knowlton's sister, Mrs. Mabel Walters, and daughter, Christine.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gateson enjoyed an extended New Year's weekend at the Casa Romada on the Rail X Ranch north of Nogales, Ariz., returning to their home on "B" Street Wednesday.

Houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wieder last week were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Latimer of Independence, Mo., here on their honeymoon. Honoring their guests Mr. and Mrs. Wieder hosted dinner for 20 at the Shadow Mountain Club preceded by cocktails at their Tamarisk home on Palm View Road with entertainment by Tex Kidwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Shurley have started to rebuild their home that was almost completely ruined by fire New Year's Eve. With her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Max Richardson, of Los Angeles, who were here for the weekend, they returned from a visit with friends about 10:30 to find their home still smoldering from the fire that was discovered by neighbors about 9 o'clock. Their daughter, Carol, who was here for the weekend from Los Angeles, was out with friends for the evening.

Mrs. Jessie Schleicht is here from her home in Fort Dodge, Iowa, visiting with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schwartz, at their home on Second Street. She plans on staying several months.

Over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tribett were houseguests at the home of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Barry, in Safford, Ariz. They were accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Altie Tribett, and his aunt, Julia Tribett, who had been visiting with them from their home in Salt Lake City, Utah, and will stay awhile in Safford before returning to Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Person who are on an extended vacation from their home in Minneapolis, Minn., arrived Tuesday from Denver, Colo., and are houseguests at the home of their close friend, Mrs. Ruby Anderson. They plan to visit their son and family in Los Angeles next week and then return for more desert sunshine.

Credit Cards, $15 Taken from Purse

Diane Beresford, 1578 Via Solida, reported to police Tuesday the theft of $15 and some credit cards from her purse in her home.

She told police that someone had entered her home and taken a wallet from her purse which contained the money and the cards.

We Have the NEW Polaroid Electric Eye Camera

Have you seen the exciting new Polaroid Land Camera? It has a tiny electric eye of radical new design that sets both the lens opening and the shutter speed for you—automatically. The eye—which is no larger than the head of a paper match—is so sensitive that it "sees" in the dim light of your living room, on a bright, sunny beach, anywhere!

Pictures indoors without flashbulbs? Just clip on the wink-light—the eye makes the correct settings automatically.

Outdoors in bright light you don't even have to focus. Just aim and snap. Everything in the picture from 3 feet to miles away will be sharp.

Remember, your picture is ready on the spot, only a moment after you snap it. Isn't this the way you want to take pictures?

This is the tiny micro-eye that sets exposure automatically both indoors and out.
